Agreement to Continue Providing SES Services

Current providers must complete this page to continue services for the current 2006-2007 school year.

Yes No N/A

Provider is aware that any limitations or restrictions to its SES program (i.e., minimum number of students per school/district, districts/schools/areas served, minimum district maximum per-pupil amount) MUST be posted on the SES provider Web site profile and assures that all required revisions were submitted to the NJDOE. Providers will be held to their Web site profile and must serve all students as defined by that profile or risk being removed from the New Jersey SES approved provider list.

Provider has verified the contact information on the SES provider Web site to assure it is current and correct (and has submitted any revisions to the Office of Title I Program Planning and Accountability). Provider accepts any consequences attained as a result of revisions not received by the Office of Title I Program Planning and Accountability.

Provider wishes to continue providing quality supplemental educational services as an approved SES provider in New Jersey for the current 2006-2007 project period. In making this agreement, the provider has notified the Office of Title I Program Planning and Accountability of any changes in scope of the SES program that differ from their originally approved application.

Provider is aware that agencies initially approved as SES providers in 2003 or 2004 must submit an application to request renewal during the next scheduled application period and receive approval in order to provide services beginning September 1, 2007.* (Check N/A if not initially approved as a provider in 2003 or 2004. This only applies to providers approved in 2003 and/or 2004).

Provider is aware that the 2005-2006 Provider Self-Evaluation survey and additional required documentation MUST be received by the due date and information that is missing, incomplete or unsatisfactory may result in the removal of the provider from the approved list in New Jersey.

Provider is aware they be may be removed from the New Jersey Approved SES Provider List if they do not, for two consecutive years, contribute to increased academic proficiency of the students to whom they provide services, and/or do not meet other eligibility requirements or assurances.

* The application will be posted on the NJDOE SES Web site: <http://www.nj.gov/njded/title1/program/ss/> in December 2006 and will be due February 28, 2007. Technical assistance sessions for prospective applicants will be held in January 2007. Registration will be on-line at <http://education.state.nj.us/events/>

 For those providers that must submit a renewal application, any required 2005-2006 Provider self-evaluation survey materials that are not received by the due date, incomplete or unsatisfactory, will result in points being deducted from their renewal application score and may affect the outcome of the provider's application.
